International Debt Collecting Commission Content With Forced Payment of Greek Obligations.

DR. HERRAN IS COMING BACK

The breach between the opposing factions during the past year of the operations during the past year of the International Commission, which is charged with the collection and disbursement of the Greek customs taxes. The result is highly satisfactory, according to the charge, and the foreign bondholders are being paid off rapidly the sums borrowed from them on account of the Graeco-Turkish war. The rate of exchange has consequently improved, an indication of the economic condition of the country, and the commission was resulted. Dr. Herran, formerly Colombian charge d'affaires in this city, is to return gency.

Mr. Wilson, United States charge at Athens, Greece, has made to the State Department an elaborate report on the opposing factions in the congregation of the Metropolitan Baptist Church is widening day by day, and there appears to be no hope of a settlement of their differences.

In accordance with an order issued some days ago the congregation will hold an election next Friday night to determine whether the members of the church desire to hold another election to select a pastor. The factions are known as the Hogan and the Drew parties.

A few days ago the latter filed a petition setting forth that a majority of the members of the congregation, did not make a paper issue of currency to meet a temporary stringency. Mr. Wilson, United States charge at

NO MONEY FOR EDITORS'

LUNCH AND CARRIAGES

According to Comptroller Tracewell, of the Treasury, there is no fund available for a lunch and carriage ride for the editors of the Indian Territory who will go to the St. Louis Fair during 'press week.' It was intended to expend $50 for this purpose, but the Comptroller finds no precedent, and says the newspaper men will have to pay their own lunch bills.
